Dear Mr. Leopold:

This letter is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2018-001639), submitted on September 4, 2018, in which you requested:

"1. All emails, sent and received, including any exchanged with the EOP.gov domain, in possession of GSA mentioning or referring to costs of a new plan to keep the FBI headquarters in downtown Washington and the decision last April to cancel a planned move to the suburbs. The timeframe for this request is January 1, 2018 through the date the search for responsive records is conducted. 2. All draft and final memos, directives, studies, white papers mentioning or referring to plans to keep the FBI headquarters in downtown Washington and the decision last April to cancel a planned move to the suburbs."

Enclosed please find the documents responsive to your request.

In processing your request, portions of the responsive records which reflect the agency's deliberative process are considered pre-decisional in nature and/or attorney-client privileged communications have been redacted pursuant to FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(5).

In addition, GSA withheld actual signatures, pursuant to the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6). This was done because public disclosure of this information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

As we have redacted information referenced in the above paragraphs with the aforementioned FOIA exemptions, this technically constitutes a partial denial of your FOIA request. You have the right to appeal the denial of the information being withheld. You may submit an appeal online at the following link (<https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>) or in writing to the following address:

Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within 120 days of the date of the response to your request. In addition, your appeal must contain a brief statement of the reasons why the requested information should be released. Please enclose a copy of your initial request and this denial. Both the appeal letter and envelope or online appeal submission should be prominently marked, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

This completes action on your request. Should you have questions, you may contact me at travis.lewis@gsa.gov or contact our GSA FOIA Public Liaison, Audrey Brooks, at (202) 205-5912 or by email at audrey.brooks@gsa.gov for any additional assistance and to discuss any aspect of your FOIA request.
